Region I- Calhoun (Northwest)

BARTOW COUNTY

On July 25th, RFC Bart Hendrix patrolled Allatoona Lake with Bartow County Deputy Matt Beal. While on patrol they made 1 arrest for operating vessel under the influence under 21, issued 4 citations for possession of alcohol by underage person, and issued 2 warnings for equipment and registration violations.

On the evening of July 21st, RFC Zack Hardy received a call for service from the Bartow County Sheriff's Office regarding a missing female on the Etowah River near Euharlee, Ga. The family reported the missing female as suicidal. The vehicle of the female was located at Hardin Bridge and some of the female's belongings were located on the river bank. An immediate search was conducted with no results. The following day, the Bartow County Sheriff's Office, Bartow County Search and Rescue Team, the Department of Natural Resources Law Enforcement Division (DNR LED), DNR Aviation Unit, and the Georgia State Patrol Dive Team met at the location for additional searches. Extensive searches were not successful. Later in the day, DNR Sgt. Mike Barr requested that the water generation be slowed at the Allatoona Lake dam by the US Army Corps of Engineers. This lowered the water level in the Etowah River. DNR Sgt. Brian Keener also arranged for the DNR Aviation Unit to assist and fly over the area on July 23rd. DNR Captain Steven Turner, the pilot of the helicopter, was able to locate a body of a deceased female in the river from the helicopter and direct DNR ground units, DNR vessel operators, and the GSP dive team to the location. Bartow County Investigator Billy Henson was directing activities and is following up with an investigation into a cause of death. DNR LED Chaplain Rudy Ross assisted the family on scene throughout the entire unfortunate event.
