On March 19th, Ranger First Class Clint Jarriel located an area where a turkey had been killed over bait. RFC Jarriel collected the evidence and made contact with the subjects he had observed leaving the area with a turkey. After a conversation, one person was charged with hunting big game over bait.

Region VII- Brunswick (Coastal)

BRYAN COUNTY

On the morning of March 18, 2016, RFC Miller was patrolling the area of the Richmond Hill Wildlife management area. A call came out from the Sheriff's Office of a car driving recklessly in the area he was patrolling. RFC Miller responded to the area. As RFC Miller arrived in the area he saw multiple mail boxes and trash cans destroyed. Two Deputies also began to arrive in the area. RFC Miller decided to continue to help locate the car. Deputy Crowe located the vehicle and was in the parking area of a residence with the female operator. RFC Miller was going to leave the scene but was asked to perform field sobriety exercises on the operator. The operator was a 19 year old woman that admitted to drinking earlier in the night. She failed all of the field sobriety exercises. It was later determined that she was under the influence of drugs and admitted to taking a "Xani-bar" earlier. The operator was placed under arrest and transported to the Bryan County jail for processing. Thankfully, no one was injured by this driver.

GLYNN COUNTY

On March 16th, RFC David Brady, RFC John Evans and Wildlife Technician Hal Wiggins conducted an Offshore JEA Patrol in cooperation with National Marine Fisheries. Several boats were checked at the offshore reefs from St. Simons Sound to the St. Mary's River Entrance. Once Brady and Evans got back inshore they received a call about a drowning on the Altamaha River. The Rangers, along with Glynn County EMA responded to the area. For the next four days, RFC David Brady, RFC John Evans, RFC Colte Shaske, RFC Patrick Gibbs, RFC Jay Bright, Cpl. Craig Smith, Sgt. Chris Ridley, Sgt. Mark Carson and Captain Bob Lynn worked closely with Glynn County EMA, Wayne County Sheriff's Office and the Camden County Sheriff's office to locate the missing man. On the morning of the 19th, RFC Colte Shaske and an EMA vessel located the body almost two miles from where the incident occurred.
