Region I- Acworth (Northwest)

BARTOW COUNTY

On February 9th, Cpl. Bart Hendrix and Warden Mark Puig patrolled Red Top Mt. State Park. The Wardens located a male fishing. The male was found to be intoxicated and was issued a citation for consuming alcohol on a State Park. The male also did not have a park pass for his motorcycle. The Wardens advised the male to have a sober driver pick him up. Approximately one hour later Warden Puig observed the male driving in the area. Warden Puig stopped the male and attempted to conduct field sobriety exercises. The male was uncooperative with Warden Puig. The male was arrested for DUI and transported to the Bartow County Jail.

CHATTOOGA COUNTY

On February 4th, GWFC McConkey responded with the Chattooga County Sheriff's Office to a possible suicide attempt by a juvenile in the county. The caller reported there was a struggle for the firearm from the 16 year old subject. The officers arrived at the location where the Deputy secured the suspect while Game Warden McConkey secured the firearm and multiple knives found on scene. The subject was found unharmed and later transported by EMS for medical treatment due to statements made.

WALKER COUNTY

On February 3rd, Game Wardens McConkey, Turner, Elmore, and Shrader completed a detail for raccoon hunters in Walker and Chattooga Counties. During the detail, three raccoon hunters were checked for the required small game license to hunt raccoon. Also located on this detail was a side by side or ATV occupied by a single male subject. The ATV was located riding on U.S. Forest Service property in Chattooga County. The subject's information was obtained and turned over to a U.S.F.S. Officer for the violation of riding the ATV on Forest Service property.

GORDON COUNTY

On February 5th, CPL Shawn Elmore assisted Gordon County SO and Georgia State Patrol with a search for a fleeing suspect that had a knife in the Resaca area of Gordon County. A pursuit had occurred and the suspect wrecked and ran on foot. The suspect pulled a knife and Gordon County deputies deployed a taser. After a Calhoun police K-9 arrived on scene, the suspect was taken into custody.
