Georgia DNR Law Enforcement Veteran to Join HQ Command Staff

Captain Bob Holley Promoted to Major

SOCIAL CIRCLE, GA – This week, the Georgia Department of Natural Resources Law Enforcement Division’s Training Director, Captain Bob Holley, was promoted to Major and will join the Command Staff at the Division’s Headquarters in Social Circle. He steps into the vacancy created when Major Mike England was promoted to Lt. Colonel a few weeks ago. Holley's new role as Field Operations Major is effective today.

“We are glad to have Major Holley at HQ and I believe his many years of experience in the field and as the Director of the Game Warden Academy will be a great asset to the entire Law Enforcement Division,” said DNR Law Enforcement Director Colonel Thomas Barnard. “His success as a leader is proven and I’m looking forward to his contributions across the state.”

Major Bob Holley

Holley is a 27-year veteran of Georgia law enforcement, serving the last 17-years with DNR’s Law Enforcement Division. He spent most of his career in southwest Georgia where he served as a Game Warden, K-9 Officer, Corporal and Sergeant in the Lake Seminole work unit before being promoted to Captain, where his primary area of responsibility was supervising the DNR Law Enforcement Training Unit and serving as Academy Director for the Game Warden Academy at the Georgia Public Safety Training Center in Forsyth.

Major Holley is a veteran of the United States Army and has a bachelor’s degree from Troy University and a master’s degree from Columbus State University. He is a 2018 graduate of the Georgia Law Enforcement Command College.

Major Holley currently resides in Macon.
